

Useful Information for Writing a Eulogy

Organizing the background details, stories and reminisces about the person who has died can be helpful when starting to write a Eulogy or a Memorial Speech. This table can be used in organize the information needed for the speech. Use additional pages as needed.

Personal Information
Name:
Place and date of birth:
Age:
Cause of Death:
Places lived, Visited:
Information about the Person's Family
Spouse's name(s):
Children & place of residence:
Grandchildren & place of residence:
Parents & place of residence (or resided, if deceased):
Pets & names:
Siblings or other significant relatives & place of residence:
Other significant relatives & place of residence:
Significant friends to mention:

Useful Information for Writing a Eulogy

More Personal Information:

Work, Career:

Education:

Hobbies and free time activities:

Religious, Social, Professionals Memberships & Other Affiliations:

Government, Professional or Community organizations Offices:

Military service:

Special or significant life events:

Special or outstanding accomplishments, achievements & awards:

Special beliefs, cherished values or life philosophies: